

Vodafone One Net Express

With Vodafone One Net Express all business calls will intelligently find you whether you're in the office or on the move. It's a completely new way of communicating that merges your landline and mobile calls.

22%

Benefits

Never miss a business call again

You can be reached first time no matter which number your customer dials.

Save up to 20% on your communication costs

Unlimited internal calls, no call forwarding costs and no on-site system to maintain.

Keep things simple on one dependable network

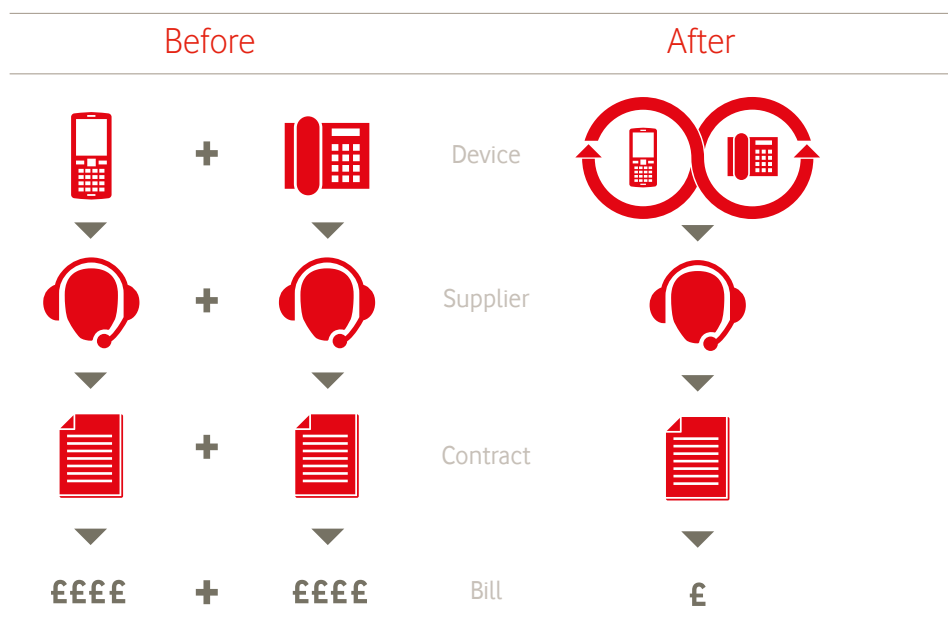

One supplier for both your landline and mobile needs means more time for you and your business.

Be local, even when you're not

Add local landline numbers across the UK to help you advertise no matter where you are based.

Today, you may have your phones supplied, contracted and billed separately. With Vodafone One Net Express your mobile and landline work together as one:

What you get

- Landline and mobile calls that go straight to your mobile
- As many geographic numbers for your company as you'd like, e.g. 01438, giving you local presence no matter where you're based
- Great features to help you control your calls and provide a superior customer experience. Like hunt groups where a single call gets routed to multiple people, great for handling calls to sales hotlines.

What's involved in getting started?

There's no installation, so getting started is really easy. Either port your existing landline numbers over to us or we can give you new ones, the choice is yours. We'll simply need to take a few details over the phone.
